Student Diwali Celebrations

Students across all campuses celebrated the Festival of Light, Diwali, last month.

Cadbury College, with the help of Ausly Akedika (the new Student Liaison officer at Cadbury College), arranged an afternoon of free food and a chance for students to paint Diya and get a Henna tattoo on their hands.

Sandwell College hosted a Diwali party on 15 Nov. Students attended dressed in their traditional clothes. There were free samosas and spring rolls, including Indian sweets for all to try.

Charity Week

Student Union held events for Fundraising Week to raise money for Black Country Women's Aid, British Heart Foundation and Acorns.

Central Campus saw Student Union and e-sports students set up consoles in the Atrium, charging students £1 per game. We also had students giving donations to have Henna tattoos done on their hands.

The Student Union also arranged for a charity raffle across all sites with a Christmas hamper for the winners at each campus. So far, over £300 has been raised.

The raffle winners were Daniel Rundle (Central Campus) and Adenike Okunade (Central Saint Michael's).

Foundation Learner's Winter Fayre

Our Foundation Learners held an amazing Winter Fayre at Central Campus, selling food, gifts and Christmas decorations. It was great to see students and staff getting involved and buying items from the different stalls.
